dear eric, today i have send you a beautiful replica of a Louis Vuitton belt.

when i was in japan i was fascinated by the Louis Vuitton

Monogram-obsession by the japanese...

the idea of a fake belt in tokyo, originally from the istanbul Grand Bazaar, excites me.

(if it ever arrives in your mail box, i hope you will not get in trouble!

<http://www.louisvuitton.com/info/fake/fake-00503.htm>

After some bargaining i could have it for 6 $.

Like you can see on the Eluxery-site, a real one costs easily more than 300$.

that is why i think the safe is a good place to show such a valuable object/sculpture.

best wishes and warm regards from istanbul.
